This is to amend the Motion of Atlanta Legal Aid Society, Inc. for Leave to Appear as Amicus Curiae and Brief in Support of Petition for Writ of Certiorari. Specifically, Movant wishes to amend its pronouncement that "movant adopts the petitioners' statement of the merits." Movant contemplated supporting only the first of petitioners' contentions, namely that the Georgia bar examination has a resulting adverse or disparate effect as to black applicants.

Movant knows of no information and has no knowledge outside the record, which would support any inference of intentional discrimination by the Board of Bar Examiners or any individual member thereof. Movant has nothing but praise for the long hours of service that the Board members devote to this work, and the other sacrifices they must make in order to serve.

FED THROUGH POOR COPY

We hope that when this litigation ends and whatever device emerges to measure the fitness of bar applicants to practice law (a concept which we believe necessary for the protection of the public and the legal profession) - be it the current examination, a new professionally developed and tested examination, or some other professionally developed and tested screening and/or review system - the Georgia Supreme Court will continue to attract bar examiners of the same high quality of those who are now serving and have recently served in that capacity.
